Roger Walton FCA

Roger Walton qualified as a chartered accountant with PKF in London in 1970 and became a partner in PKF's London office in 1975.

Since 1971, Roger has specialised in the investigation and valuation of businesses in connection with commercial transactions and also disputes and litigation. From 1975 to 1984, Roger managed PKF's London Corporate Finance Advisory department and advised in relation to many corporate acquisitions, mergers and flotations as well as carrying out investigative work and private company share valuations in connection with litigation.

In 1984 Roger moved to Norfolk and over the next 20 years advised many private family companies in East Anglia on corporate finance matters and in particular on the acquisition and sale of businesses and similar transactions whilst also being actively engaged throughout this period in specialist forensic work which from 1994 formed the major part of his professional work. He is currently instructed in over 50 cases in each year.

Roger has experience of acting in cases in relation to most industry sectors and business types involving businesses with sales turnover of less than £1 million to private companies with sales turnover in excess of £250 million and much larger listed companies.

Roger specialises in matrimonial cases and has given expert evidence in the County Courts, in the High Court and in the Principal Registry on numerous occasions.
