

Walton Dodge Forensic

Jon Dodge MA FCA CF MEWI

Jon qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1991. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and has specialised in expert witness and corporate finance work since 1992. He is a member of the Expert Witness Institute, trained as a single joint expert, holds the Institute's Corporate Finance Qualification and is a co-founder of Walton Dodge Forensic.

Prior to founding Walton Dodge Forensic, between 1997 and 2004 Jon was a forensic, corporate finance and tax partner in PKF, a national firm of chartered accountants and business advisors.

Jon specialises in share and business valuation cases and has been instructed as an expert witness in approximately 500 cases over the last 10 years and in over 800 cases in his career to date. He is often instructed as a Single Joint Expert and has given evidence in Court on many occasions. Jon is currently instructed as an expert witness in approximately 40 cases each year and his experience covers a very wide range of sectors and companies of all sizes.

In addition to his work in WDF, Jon is also the founder-director of JDC Corporate Finance. He has personally acted as lead advisor in over 100 corporate finance transactions and in relation to numerous company reorganisations and minority shareholder exits. The practical experience that Jon has as a corporate finance professional perfectly complements his experience as an expert share and business valuer in Court proceedings.

In addition to his valuation expertise, Jon is also often instructed to provide expert opinion on a range of taxation matters in respect of personal and corporate tax, in relation to the value of share options in private and listed companies and in respect of income and asset investigations.

Jon has presented nationally and internationally at conferences for professional training companies, Resolution, the Association of District Judges (by invitation) and the Expert Witness Institute on matters ranging from share valuation to instructing an accountant and the regulatory environment.
