

Walton Dodge Forensic

Fiona Hotston Moore

BSC(HONS) FCA CTA MAE ACFS

Fiona qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1990. Fiona is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and has specialised in expert witness and corporate finance work since 2000. She is a member of the Academy of Experts, trained as a Single Joint Expert, is a member of the ICAEW Panel for President's Appointments Scheme and is an Accredited Counter Fraud Specialist.

Prior to joining Walton Dodge Forensic, between 2014 and 2019 Fiona was head of the forensic accounting team at Ensors Accountants, a large independent practice in East Anglia. Before this Fiona has been partner in a number of national and Top 20 firms.

Fiona specialises in share and business valuation cases and has particular experience in the Family Court as well as commercial disputes, tax disputes and professional negligence matters. She has been instructed as an expert witness in approximately 300 cases in her career to date. She is often instructed as a Single Joint Expert and has given evidence in Court and Tax Tribunals on many occasions. Fiona is currently instructed as an expert witness in approximately 50 cases each year and her experience covers a very wide range of sectors and companies of all sizes.

In addition to her work in WDF, Fiona is also a director of JDC Corporate Finance. The practical experience that Fiona has as a business adviser and the wider experience within the team perfectly complements her experience as an expert share and business valuer in Court proceedings.

In addition to her valuation expertise, Fiona is also often instructed to provide expert opinion on a range of matters including tax disputes (including EBTs, film schemes, entrepreneurs' relief and Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), officer and employee fraud, auditor and tax adviser professional negligence claims, shareholder disputes, agency disputes and insurance claims.

Fiona regularly presents nationally and internationally at conferences for professional training companies, Resolution, the Law Society and other professionals.
